

MALUHIA GARDEN TOUR

Saturday, March 11, 2017

9:00-11:00 am.

Framed by the verdant Koolaus, Maluhia, which means peace or serenity, is exactly that. Exotic plantings, ponds enhanced by Meiji Era cranes, a stone monk, a Buddha and a teahouse built from reclaimed wood blend beautifully in this peaceful repository for rare hybrid ti and plants from across Asia and the Pacific. Designed in the “hide and reveal” style typical of Asian gardens by owner and host David Yearian, the garden is a hidden Waimanalo treasure.

This tour involves walking on pavement, gravel pathways and a small area of stone paving. Walking shoes recommended. Carpooling is a must. Directions and details will be given to those who register. Preference in registration will be given to II members. Maximum number of attendees: 25

Tour cost: $10
