

Ikebana International, Chapter 56

New Year's Luncheon 2019

Enter the YEAR of the Earth Boar

Date: Sunday, January 20, 2019
Time: 10:00 am – 2:00 PM
Location: Pearl Country Club

Colors of the EARTH BOAR are Red, Orange, Pink and White; come dressed in those colors and help I.I. ring in the Year of the Earth Boar. 2019 indicates lots of change and, if planned well, can bring abundance and luck.

Professor Gaye Chan, Chair of the Department of Art and Art History at the University of Hawaii, will present: Everything in Common. She is co-founder of Eating in Public and markets Sustainable baskets from bale straps.

Buffet Menu: Baked Island Fish, Okinawan Shoyu Pork, Korean Style BBQ Chicken; Island Mixed greens, Pasta, Potato Macaroni, Fresh Fruit, Korean Tofu, and Chopped Salads; Jello; White Rice and Mashed Potatoes; Chef's Choice desserts; Coffee, Hot Tea or Fruit Punch

Cost: $45.00

RSVP by: Friday, January 11th. Please return the bottom portion with your payment to:
